

Sunday A.M. Adult Classes

October - December, 2011

Luke

Eric Mizell

Auditorium

This class is a continuation of the Bible study through the New Testament using an open Bible. It is a class that is intended to have good classroom participation. Eric will provide materials for this class study. No signup is required if you want to sit in on this class.

James

Levon McDaniel

Room 5

This class is a continuation of the Bible study through the New Testament using purchased materials. "Faith Made Perfect" by Walton Weaver is a 13 week study of the epistle of James. While written to first century Christians, the book of James is very applicable to God's people today. The epistle was written to provoke a Christian to action and serves well as a guide on how to live for God in today's world.

Grace

David Roberts

Library

Ephesians 2:8-9 says we are saved by grace as a gift from God. But what does that mean? How will we saved God's grace without falling from it as scripture warns? We don't need to be afraid of grace. Rather, we need to rejoice in it. This class will help us cut through all the misinformation and learn God's means of saving us and overcoming our sins by relying on His grace through Jesus Christ.

Raising Kids Who Have A Heart for God

Dick Roberts

Room 7

This is the last quarter class for the 26 lesson study written by David Banning. The elders divided up and taught the classes for the 1st quarter of the study. This quarter will be taught by Dick Roberts. The intent of the material and the purpose of the class study will be to help parents avoid many of the pitfalls that their KIDS will face. It should be an interesting as well as a beneficial study for parents.
